

Goth Prom XIII
CALL FOR ARTISTS

The call for art is open to local artists of the dark & spooky type, who have original work or limited edition prints.

Goth Prom is a collective exhibition of local artists, musicians, and performers, with a focus on the dark, macabre, and gothic.

The theme this year is "Thirteen Superstitions" - folk knowledge, the supernatural, and themes of good and bad luck. We hope to showcase works and images which intrigue, astound, puzzle the mind, and raise ever more questions in a world without definitive answers.

The deadline for the Artist Application is April 23rd, 2016. Notification of Acceptance will be issued on April 30th.

Exhibition Rules & Guidelines

- All mediums will be considered. However most of our display space is wall space that is at about eye height, and within reach of patrons. Preference will be given to work appropriate to that space.
- For each artwork submitted for consideration, please include a photo of the work, dimensions, and all relevant information.
- The Goth Prom Planning Committee reserves the right to reject any work submitted for any reason, including but not limited to poor workmanship, space availability, safety concerns, or to otherwise attain balance and diversity of work in the show.
- Artists must provide selected works ready for display between May 19th - 22nd.
- All works must be wired for hanging or otherwise prepared for display. Art not properly wired to hang cannot be displayed.
- Selected works will be displayed the evening of May 23rd, 2016 in the Goth Prom art gallery.
- Photographs may be taken at the event, which may include pictures of the artist or the artist's work.- Goth Prom Art Gallery is not an art sale. All selling of artwork and exchange of money must be taken care of by the artist. All profit will go directly to the artist.
- All art must be collected from the Saloon, by 1:00pm on the day of Tuesday, May 24th, 2016.
